

Sofie D'Hooore

Index

Brand research⁰⁰³⁻⁰⁰⁸ / Inspirational Reference⁰⁰⁹⁻⁰¹⁰ / Brand values⁰¹¹⁻⁰¹⁵ /
Guided Research⁰¹⁶⁻⁰²² / Editorial concept⁰²³⁻⁰²⁶ /
Product shootings⁰²⁷⁻⁰⁵⁴ / Special projects⁰⁵⁵⁻⁰⁸⁶ / Calendar⁰⁸⁷⁻⁰⁹³

Brand Research

About the Brand

SOFIE D'HOORE

1992, Antwerp, Belgium
Sofie D’Hoore

Recognitions

Vogue, System, WWD

Communication Style Analysis

- Neutral imagery
- Architectural silhouettes
- Absence of spectacle

What strikes us

The brand reworks classic garments through altered cuts, layering, and hybrid closures. This balance of structure and disruption reflects our interest in experimentation within familiar forms, aligning with contemporary design practices.

KEYWORDS: Tailoring, genuine premium leather, dynamic, leave a mark, colorful, no-gender, belonging, quiet-luxury, emergent, sophisticated

Cultural Agency

Sofie D’Hoore acts as a quiet critique of fast fashion. By privileging longevity, proportion, and restraint, it promotes slowness and permanence within a culture dominated by speed and visibility.

Sustainability

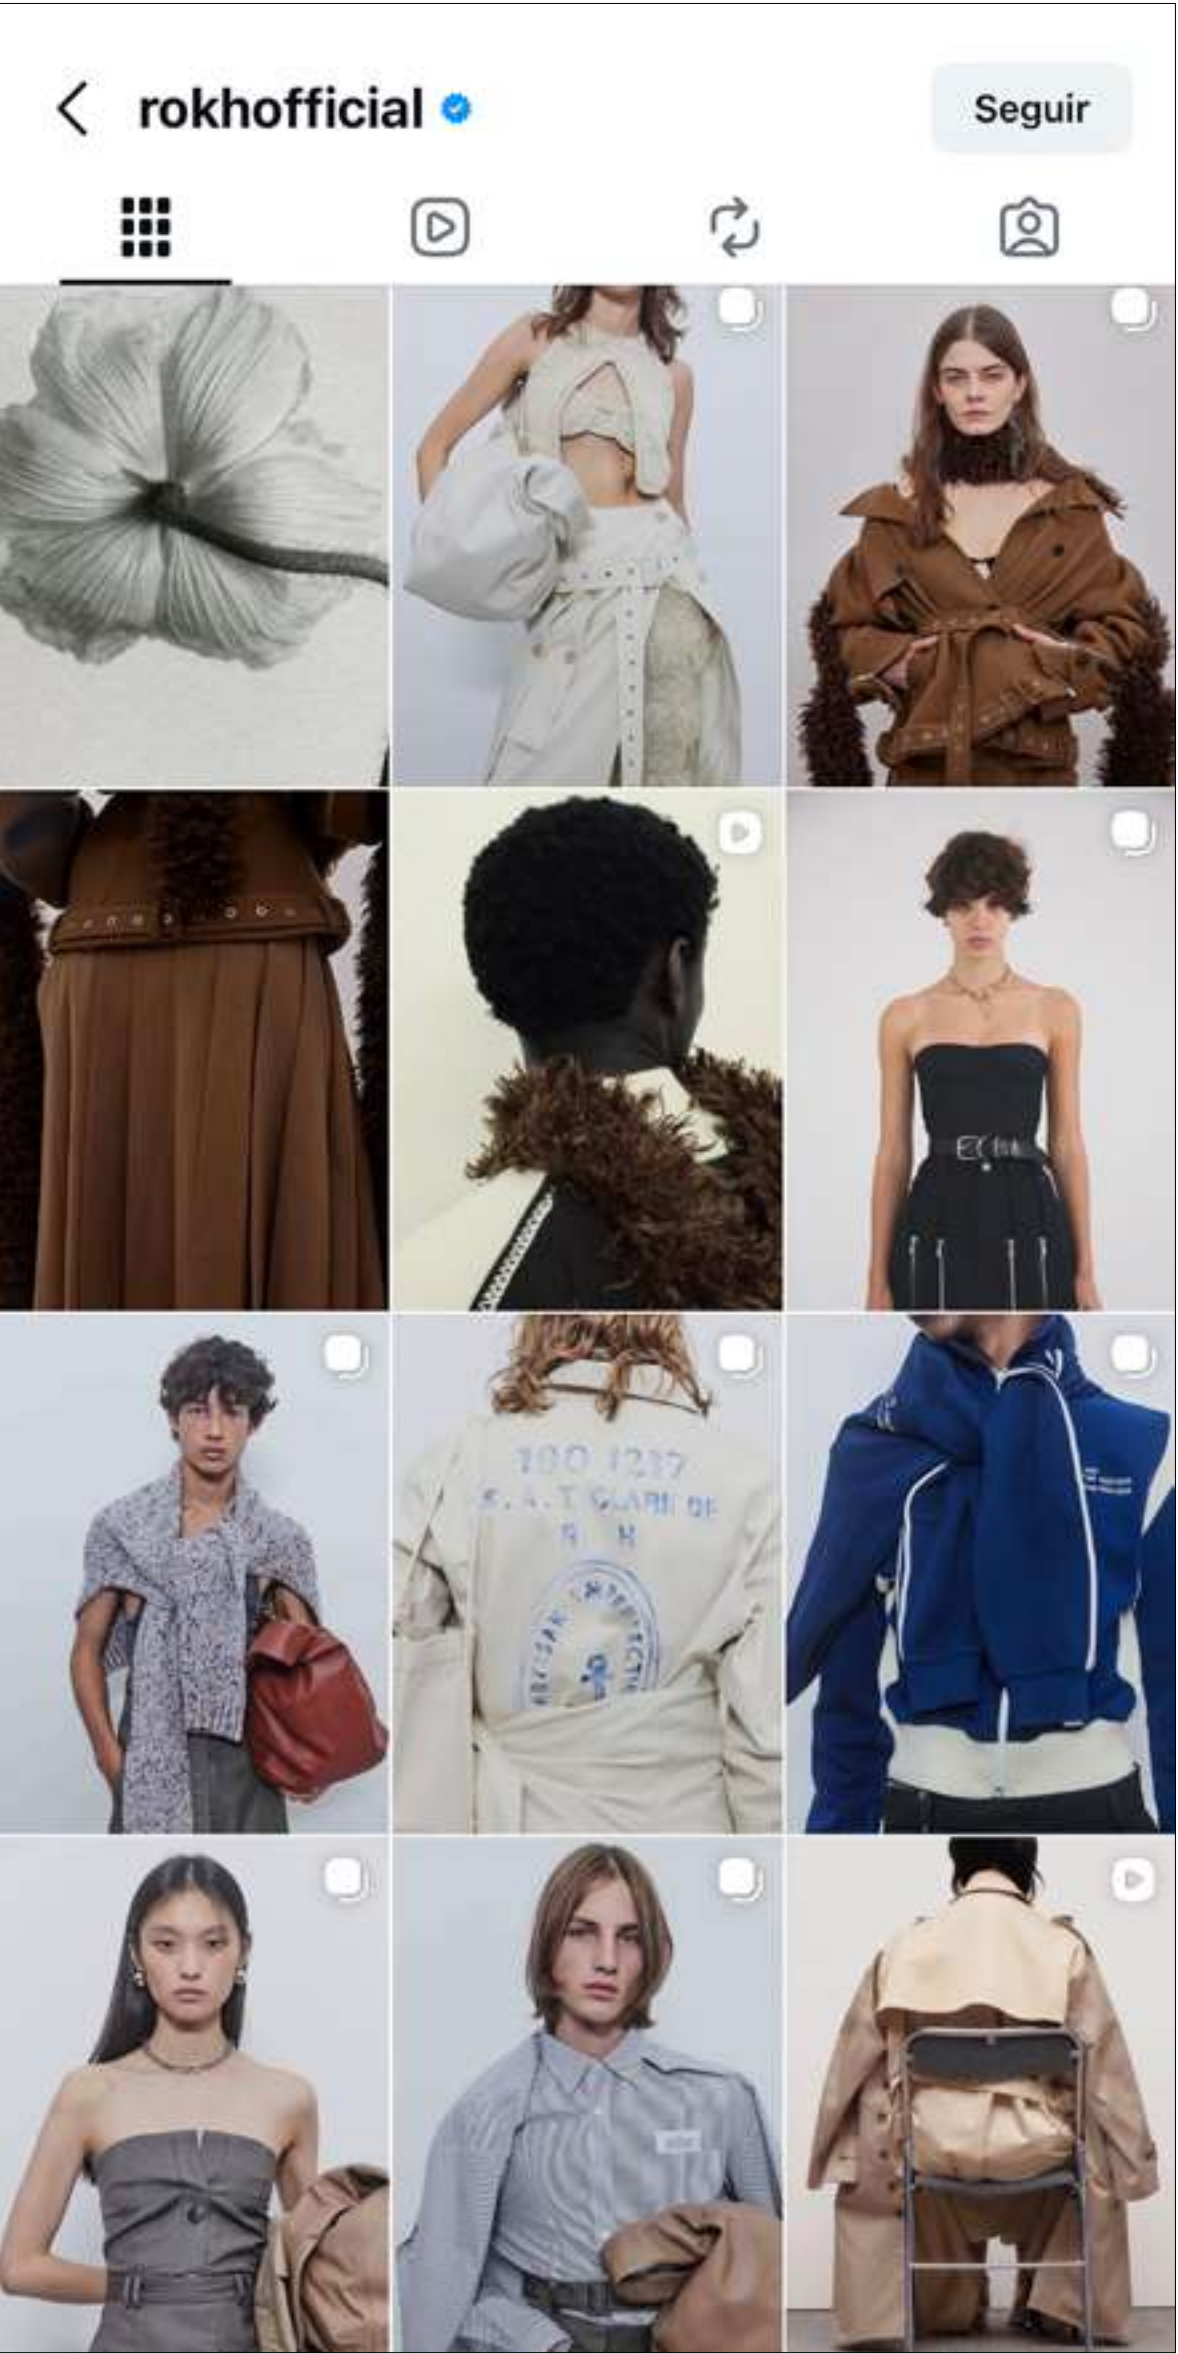

Sustainability is embedded in quality materials, European production, and longevity. Its disruption is conceptual: producing fewer, well-constructed garments in opposition to fashion’s accelerated consumption cycle.

Inspirational Reference

Inspirational Reference

We are inspired by ROKH and Marcos Hjorn for their social media, where clean visuals, process-focused storytelling, and subtle details communicate craftsmanship, inspiring Sofie’s digital narrative.

Brand Values

Analytical
minimalism

Sculptural
shapes

Independent timeless

Analytical
minimalism

Sculptural
shapes

Independent
timeless

Fashion | Balenciaga & Armani

Analytical
minimalism

Sculptural
shapes

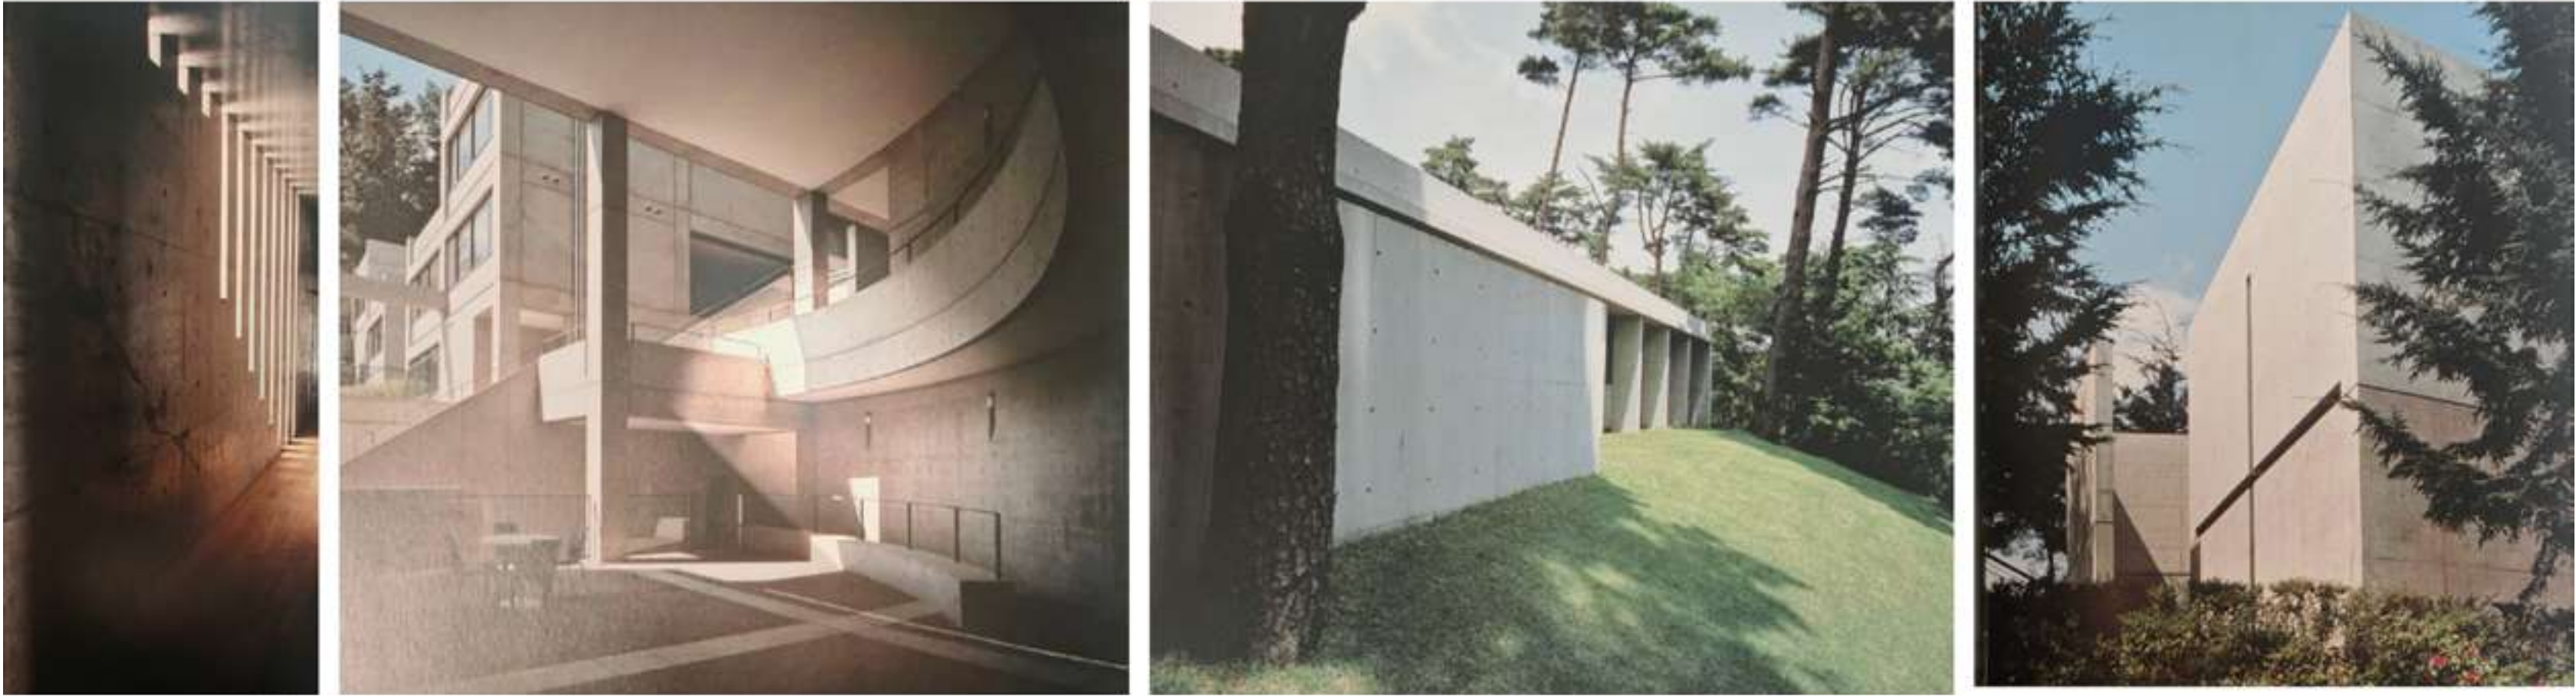

Independent
timeless

Art | Tony Cragg, Richard Serra & Anish Kapoor

Analytical
minimalism

Sculptural
shapes

Independent
timeless

Architecture | Tadao Ando

Guided Research

Sculpting

Evokes effortless elegance through refined, tactile balance and gentle movement.

Keywords

Volume

Material

Structure

Pattern

Creation

Inquiry

Volume	How can the sense of volume be expressed visually and physically in both form and space?
Material	How can materials be used to convey texture, emotion and interaction with the body or environment?
Structure	How can structure guide the composition and rhythm of visuals while maintaining elegance and flow?
Pattern	How can patterns emerge naturally from form, texture, or movement, enhancing the narrative of the work?
Creation	How can the evolution from idea to final form be reflected in the mood, pacing and editorial choices?

Cultural References

“Cyclic” Rie Nakajima
2018

Installation of small, motor-driven objects that produce subtle, continuous sounds through physical interaction.
<https://www.rienakajima.com/>

“Orfèvre”
Clara Schweers
2025

Frozen-like glass flowers by artist Clara Schweers, featured in the holiday windows of Orfèvre in Düsseldorf.
<https://claraschweers.com/>

“Terratorium”
Omer Arbel
2019

Spatial, geometric installations that activate volume and structure, revealing rhythm and material texture through light.
<https://www.wallpaper.com/architecture/75.9-omer-arbel-vancouver-canada>

Cultural References

“Air Bubble”
ecoLogicStudio
2021

Interactive installation creating dynamic forms that respond to environmental data, material, and space into sculptural volumes.
<https://www.ecologicstudio.com/projects/air-bubble-air-purifying-eco-machine>

“Vessel Orchestra”
Oliver Beer
2020 – 2022

Interactive sound installation where ceramic vessels produce tones when touched, translating material into rhythmic soundscapes.
<https://www.oliverbeer.co.uk/vesselorchestra>

“Chalk. Phase 3”
Nikolaj E. Svenningsen
2022

Surface as a site of memory, where gesture, repetition, and erasure leave material traces, revealing form as a process shaped by time, touch, and human intervention.
<https://kglakademi.dk/da/projekt/chalk-site-memory-anthropocene>

Critical Synthesis

Strong dialogue between form, material, and process, where structure and volume emerge organically through repetition, time, and perception.

Balance between minimalism and expressivity, with visible process transforming creation into a narrative, not just a final result.

Editorial direction focused on texture, folds, and rhythm, understanding sculpting as subtle shifts in light, surface, and volume.

Editorial Concept

Sculpting

explores the relationship between body, material, and space, where form emerges through process, light, and movement, creating a refined balance between structure, softness, and quiet architectural presence.

Sculpting

Strategic reflection

Strengths

Strong and cohesive concept expressed across fashion, movement, objects and process.

Effective interdisciplinary approach combining fashion, art, and performance.

Distinctive and editorial visual identity with impactful use of volume, light and structure.

Weaknesses

Concept may feel too abstract for a broader audience.

Heavy reliance on controlled, non-commercial environments.

Limited focus on functionality and wearability.

Product Shootings

On Body Editorial

Spring Summer 2026

We have chosen pieces from the latest collection that have volume and movement.

Airborne

Garments appear to float around the body, between air and skin. Movement, walking, turning, lifting arms, small jumps, or holding fabric, activates volumes and reveals their lightness.

Casting

Aliz Menyhert
Belgium
Agency: Dominique

Aliz Menyhert
Belgium
Agency: Dominique

Location

La Fabrique 22 A
Bruxells, Belgium

#	Look	Model	Visual reference	Location	Notes
1				Studio, plain white background, hard light to create shadows	Capture the movement walking
2				Studio, plain white background, hard light to create shadows	Make a falling effect
3				Studio, plain white background, hard light to create shadows	Model can move freely

Shooting list

#	Look	Model	Visual reference	Location	Notes
4				Studio, plain white background, hard light to create shadows	Interaction with the garment: hands touching, lifting, or sliding over the fabric
5				Studio, plain white background, hard light to create shadows	Play with the volume of the dress
6				Studio, plain white background, hard light to create shadows	Capture expanding volume of the dress

Shooting list

#	Look	Model	Visual reference	Location	Notes
7				Studio, plain white background, hard light to create shadows	Close-ups for volumes, shots for movement, wide shots for sculptural composition.
8				Studio, plain white background, hard light to create shadows	Perform gentle jumps
9				Studio, plain white background, hard light to create shadows	Natural movement with legs and arms

Shooting list

Still Life

Brown

We selected brown garments with structured shapes and sculptural potential, allowing folds to hold form, emphasizing material, controlled volume, and the ability to construct tactile, architectural compositions.

Folded volumes

Garments are carefully folded and shaped into sculptural compositions, emphasizing structure, volume, and form. Each piece becomes a tactile object, where material and construction create quiet, architectural expressions of sculpted elegance.and movement.

Location

La Fabrique 22 A
Bruxells, Belgium

Shooting list

#	Item	Visual reference	Background	Notes
1			Light grey velvety background	Sleeves folded so they're not visible
2			Light grey velvety background	Coat folded like a T-shirt
3			Dark grey velvety background	Jacket folded in half and placed sideways

Shooting list

#	Item	Visual reference	Background	Notes
4			Dark grey velvety background	Open jacket
5			Dark grey velvety background	The top three buttons are fastened
6			Light grey velvety background	Folded and pressed like a pleated skirt

Advertising w/celebrity

Holly Herndon

Berlin, Germany

Holly Herndon is an experimental musician exploring voice, technology, and AI. Her performances and installations have appeared in major museums and festivals, blending sound, space, and digital culture.

Location

“Labyrint”

Gijs Van Vaerenbergh
C-mine square, Genk (Brussels)

Echoing curves

2 pictures
1 video

Holly Herndon performs within Labyrinth, her voice and movements activating the sculptures' curves and volumes, exploring acoustics, tactility, and space in a living, sculptural, airborne experience.

Unbleached Cotton

We selected brown outfits echoing Richard Serra’s sculptures, with structured and brutalist silhouettes and contrast textures, reinforcing coherence between material, form, and the architectural presence of the space.

Visual inspiration

#	Look	Visual reference	Format	Location	Notes
1			Photography	“Open Ended“ sculpture from the inside	Artist framed within Serra sculpture, emphasizing outfit and curves
2			Photography	“Open Ended“ sculpture from the outside	Sculpture surrounding artist, highlighting space and light
3			Video	“Open Ended“ sculpture	Drone circles above, capturing artist and architectural flow

Shooting list

Lookbook

SS26 | Beige & white

For the lookbook, we will focus on pieces from the latest collection that correspond to a colour range.

In detail

Lookbook shot on a clean white background where garments remain central. Inspired by Rokh, subtle annotations reveal construction, materials, and Pantone codes, blending technical information with visual composition.

Location

La Fabrique 22 A
Bruxells, Belgium

Shooting list

#	Look	Visual reference	Background	Notes
1			Studio, plain white background	Side view
2			Studio, plain white background	3/4 view
3			Studio, plain white background	Front view, full body

Shooting list

#	Look	Visual reference	Background	Notes
4			Studio, plain white background	Front view, full body
5			Studio, plain white background	Side view, full body
6			Studio, plain white background	45° view

Special Projects

Collaboration

Who

Kauani

Kauani is a textile lighting project by Inés Llasera and Inés Quezada, creating sculptural lamps inspired by botanical forms, blending craftsmanship, material experimentation, and luminous organic volumes.

Why

This collaboration aligns with Sofie D’Hoore’s aesthetic, where minimalism meets volume, as Kauani’s soft, sculptural textile lamps echo her balance between structure, lightness, and material sensitivity.

What

Limited edition lamps made with the lightweight fabric so it diffuses light softly.

1 Ceiling Pendant Lamp | Designed to interact with air movement, creating the sensation of “floating” over the space.

2 Table Lamps | Warm light emphasizing volume and transparency, almost like miniature floating sculptures.

On body

Still Life

Luminous

The lamps are presented as sculptural artworks within a gallery space, while the model interacts with each piece through distinct outfits, creating a dialogue between body, light, and form.

On body

Still Life

Beige

We have chosen a beige outfit that combines volume, structure and lightness with the lamps, allowing for a different kind of interaction with the sculptural presence and the spatial composition.

On body

Still Life

Casting

Caroline Winberg
Sweden
Agency: Dominique Models

On body

Still Life

Location

Sorry We’re Closed Gallery

Rue des Minimes, 39
Brussels

On body

Still Life

Shooting list

#	Look	Lamp	Visual reference	Location	Notes
1					Model under hanging lamp, looking up, framing lamp as centerpiece
2					Model observing desk lamp, interacting gently with light and form
3					Model beside desk lamp, exploring volume and texture with hands

On body

Still Life

Shooting list

#	Lamp	Visual reference	Location	Notes
4				Showcase lamp as centerpiece, model framed interacting with space
5				Capture the lamp as a sculptural object, model interacting subtly
6				Highlight volume and material, model poses beside lamp

Craftsmanship

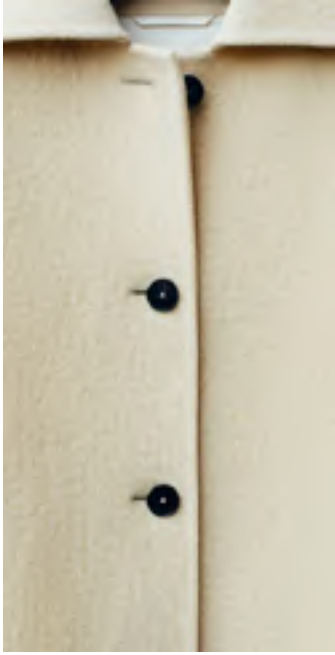

Where sculpture begins

This project documents the garment-making process, from initial sketch to pattern making, cutting, and assembly, highlighting craftsmanship, precision, and the transformation of material into a finished piece.

Shooting list

#	Visual reference	Material	Background	Notes
1		Needles, fabric, measuring tape, safety pins	Plain yellow	Paper patterns laid out, showing structure
2		Patterns in paper	White	Close-up of hand drawing the garment
3		Close-up sculptural pose to show volume and texture	Plain yellow	Cutting fabric, highlighting texture.

Shooting list

#	Visual reference	Material	Background	Notes
4		Needles, fabric, measuring tape, sa-fety pins	White	Sewing or pinning pieces together
5		Patterns in paper	White	Close-up of seams and finishing touches
6		Garment finished	White	Complete piece displayed, showing form and volume

Mood

Sculpting

“Air Bubble”
ecoLogicStudio
2021

Interactive installation creating dynamic forms that respond to environmental data, material, and space into sculptural volumes.
<https://www.ecologicstudio.com/projects/air-bubble-air-purifying-eco-machine>

“Vessel Orchestra”
Oliver Beer
2020 - 2022

Interactive sound installation where ceramic vessels produce tones when touched, translating material into rhythmic soundscapes.
<https://www.oliverbeer.co.uk/vesselorchestra>

“Orfèvre”
Clara Schweers
2025

Frozen-like glass flowers by artist Clara Schweers, featured in the holiday windows of Orfèvre in Düsseldorf.
<https://claraschweers.com/>

Reel

Sculpted in motion

The model becomes a living sculpture, holding distinct poses in three outfits while the camera pans around her, capturing the movement of people passing, emphasizing stillness amidst motion.

Black

Each black outfit transforms the model into a living sculpture, balancing asymmetry, fluidity, and minimalistic structure, letting fabric, shape, and volume define her presence in stillness.

Visual inspiration

The model will remain motionless in a dance pose whilst people walk past and looking at her

Location

Meir, Antwerp

Shooting list

#	Look	Visual reference	Location	Notes
1				B&W Close-up sculptural pose to show volume and texture
2				B&W Full-body low angle model as living sculpture
3				B&W Environment interaction. Model still, capture people passing around her

People

Sadeck Berrabah

leads a collective known for synchronized group choreography, creating hypnotic, geometric formations where bodies move as one, transforming dance into powerful, sculptural visual compositions.

Rhythm

Rhythm

The project merges dance and fashion, as Sadeck Berrabah’s choreography animates a specially designed Sofie outfit, revealing sculptural forms through movement and color, captured as a dynamic living sculpture.

Interview

Five questions

How do you approach creating movement for a group while maintaining individual expression?

How does costume or clothing influence your choreography and dancers’ movements?

What inspires you most when designing a performance for a visual story?

How do you see the interaction between space, bodies, and light in your work?

Can you describe a moment when movement transformed into something sculptural or unexpected?

Visual reference

- Photo Sadeck Berrabah
- Photo Group
- Video Coreography

Outfit

We chose a Sofie outfit with a contrasting jacket lining, allowing movement to reveal shifting shapes and colors, transforming the dancers’ bodies into dynamic, living sculptures.

Location

Sorry We're Closed Gallery

Rue des Minimes, 39
Brussels

Shooting list

#	Look	Visual reference	Format	Location	Notes
1			Individual photography	 stairs	Close-up shot of the body in motion
2			Group photography	 banister	Low-angle shot capturing the performers' faces leaning over the upper-level banister
3			Coreography video	 white room	Performance video capturing the choreography in motion

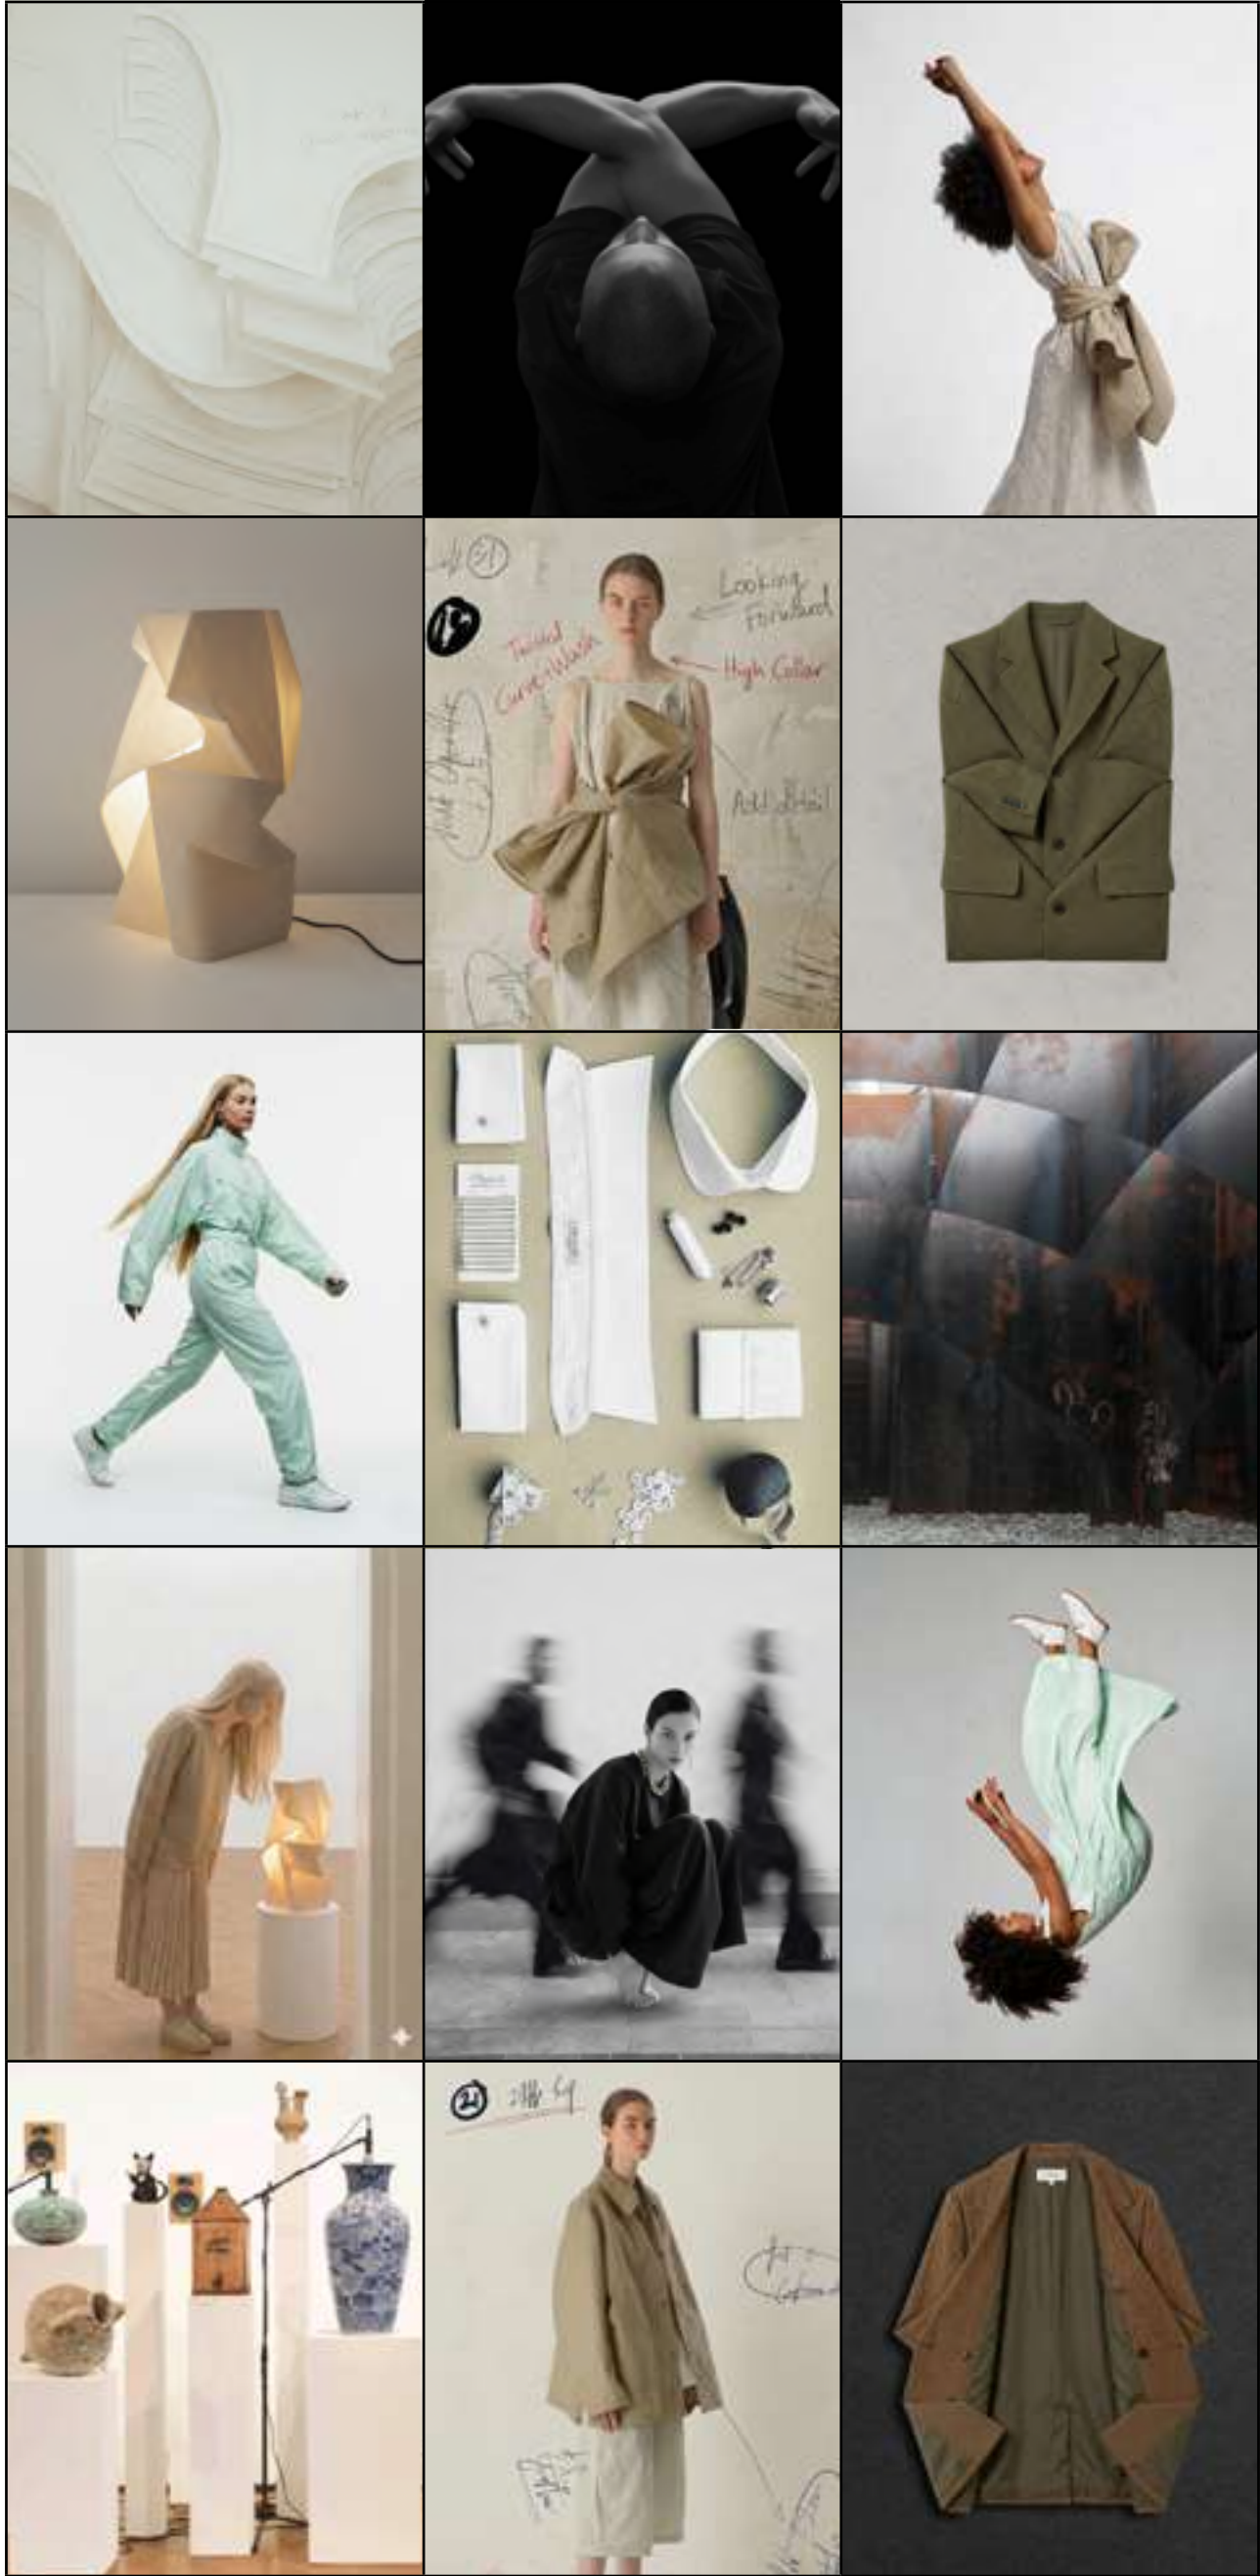

Calendar

Instagram calendar

craftmanship	people	on body editorial
collaboration	lookbook	still life
on body editorial	craftmanship	advertising w/celebrity collaboration	reel	on body editorial
mood	lookbook	still life

Instagram Grid

craftmanship Thursday 31th	people Tuesday 29th	on body editorial Sunday 26th collaboration Friday 24th	lookbook Wednesday 20th	still life Monday 20th on body editorial Friday 17th	craftmanship Wednesday 15th	advertising w/celebrity Monday 13rd collaboration Saturday 11st	reel Thursday 9th	on body editorial Tuesday 7th
mood Sunday 5th	lookbook Friday 3rd	still life Wednesday 1st

April

craftmanship Friday 29th	People Wednesday 27th	on body editorial Monday 25th collaboration Friday 22nd	lookbook Wednesday 20th	still life Monday 18th on body editorial Friday 15th	craftmanship Wednesday 13th	advertising w/celebrity Monday 11st collaboration Saturday 9th	reel Thursday 7th	on body editorial Tuesday 5th mood Sunday 3rd	lookbook Saturday 2nd	still life Friday 1st

May

craftmanship Tuesday 30th	People Monday 29th	on body editorial Saturday 27th collaboration Thursday 25th	lookbook Tuesday 23rd	still life Sunday 21st on body editorial Friday 19th	craftmanship Wedsnesday 17th	advertising w/celebrity Monday 15th collaboration Friday 12nd	reel Wednesday 10th	on body editorial Monday 8th mood Friday 5th	lookbook Wednesday 3rd	still life Monday 1st

June

